

CURRICULUM VITAE

V. Frank graduated from the Università degli Studi di Bologna (Italy), Faculty of Law, 1999. Subsequently she completed an internship at the Legal Department of the UNEP Regional Office for Latin America and Caribbean, Mexico City (1999) and obtained an LL.M specializing in international and European Environmental Law at the Amsterdam Law School (2001). Since November 2001 she is conducting a Ph.d research at NILOS. In July 2002 she attended the 7th Session of the Rhodes Academy on Oceans Law and Policy in Rhodes, Greece. During 2002-2003, she did an internship at the Maritime Policy Unit, DG Energy and Transport of the European Commission. In 2003 she has worked on a project sponsored by the Wiarda Institute on “Consequences of the Prestige Sinking for European and International Law”, published in International Journal on Marine and Coastal Law, Vol. 20, March 2005.