

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	ix
List of Abbreviations	xii
Map of Batakland during the Period of the Batakmission	xv
Introduction	1

PART ONE

CONTEXT AND BACKGROUND OF THE ENCOUNTER

CHAPTER ONE A SUMMARY OF THE HISTORY OF EDUCATION IN INDONESIA FROM ABOUT 1800 TO 1940	10
A. The Dutch Colonial Government's Policy and Practice of Education	11
B. Educational Efforts of Mission Boards	25
C. Relationships between the Mission and Government	32
1. Financial Relationships	32
2. Organizational Relationships	34
3. Relationship of Educational Views	36
Table of Growth of Schools in the West Indies 1800-1940	38
CHAPTER TWO TRADITIONAL BATAK EDUCATION	42
A. An Overview of Traditional Batak Society	42
B. Adat as a System Comprehending All Areas of Life	48
C. Family and Social Education	51
1. Family Education and Value of the Child	51
2. Community Education	60
D. Several Kinds of Knowledge and Technical and Practical Skills	62
1. The Batak House	63
2. Village (Huta)	64
3. Boats (Solu)	65
4. Building Rice Terraces (Parumaon)	65
5. Weaving	66
6. Equipment for daily living	67

E.	Datu and Hadatuon Professional and Specialized Knowledge	71
	1. Language and Script	78
	2. Systems Concerning an Almanac, Calendar and Astrology	79
	3. Compass Point Indicator: desa na ualu and bindu matoga	80
	4. Materials for Traditional Divination	80
F.	Conclusion	82
CHAPTER THREE RMG'S VIEW OF EDUCATION		84
A.	The Barmen Seminary	85
	1. Views of Its Teachers	85
	(a) J.H. Richter (1799-1846)	86
	(b) J.C. Wallmann (1811-1865)	87
	(c) G.L. von Rohden (1817-1889)	89
	(d) F.G.K.E. Fabri (1824-1891)	91
	(e) Gustav Warneck (1834-1910)	98
	(f) A. Schreiber (1839-1903)	111
	2. Barmen Seminary Entrance Requirements	115
B.	RMG Relationships with Various Mission-Oriented Bodies in the West	120
	1. Relationships with Various Dutch Circles	120
	2. Relationships with Other Mission Bodies through Conferences	123
	(a) Series of Continental European Conferences	124
	E. Reichel - C.H.C. Plath - L. Hesse
	(b) Other Mission Conferences	130
C.	Conclusion	132

PART TWO

DETAILS OF THE ENCOUNTER

CHAPTER FOUR	THE PIONEERING PERIOD: 1861-1882	137
A.	The Beginning of the Encounter	137
	1. First Steps	137
	2. Relationships with the Batak Society	138
	(a) The Southern Region	138
	(b) The Northern Region	142
	3. Relationships with the Dutch Indies Government	147
	(a) Competition	147

(b) Support	148
B. School Development	153
1. Types of Schools	153
(a) Elementary Schools	153
(b) Education Especially for Girls/Women	157
(c) Trade Schools	157
(d) School for Church Elders	158
2. Equipment of Learning	158
(a) Buildings and Equipment	159
(b) School Books, and General Literature	160
3. Financing the Schools	165
4. Collateral School Functions	169
(a) Health and Medical Ministries	169
(b) Ministries of Reconciliation	169
(c) Locales for Evangelism	170
C. Education of Indigenous Workers, especially Teachers	171
1. The Parausorat Catechetical School	172
2. Pansur Napitu	175
Excursus: Seminary at Depok	183
D. The Role of the Bataks in Developing in the Educational Ministry	184
1. Elders	184
2. Teacher	186
(a) Daily Activities	187
(b) On The-Job-Training/Nurturing	189
Meetings for Preparation - Conferences
E. Statistics	193
CHAPTER FIVE THE HIGHPOINT OF DEVELOPMENT: 1883-1914	194
A. Factors Contributing to Reform	195
1. Expansion of the Working	195
2. An Increase in European Personnel	203
(a) Pastors of Congregations (Gemeindemissionare)	203
(b) Teachers	204
(c) Women Evangelists (Schwester/Sisters)	204

(d) Doctors	205
3. Government Subsidy	205
4. The Batak Community's Desire for Education	210
B. Development in Numbers and Kinds of Schools	214
1. Elementary School	215
(a) Basic or Regular Elementary Schools	215
(b) Elementary School for Girls	215
(c) Elementary School for Chiefs' Children	216
(d) Dutch Language Elementary School	217
2. Vocational Secondary Schools	218
(a) Seminary	218
(b) Industrial or Trade School (Industrieschule; Sikola Hapandean)	218
(c) Nurse and Midwifery Course	219
(d) Agricultural School	220
(e) Weaving and Crocheting School	221
C. Consolidation of Views	222
1. Theological and Missiological Views	222
2. Views of Pedagogy and Method	233
D. Reforming the System and Nurturing of Teachers	238
1. Renewal of the Teacher Seminary Education	239
(a) Rebuilding the Learning Facilities and Increasing Its Capacity	239
(b) Improving of Reforming Elementary Education	245
(c) Reform of the Curriculum and Teaching Methods	251
(d) Reforming Seminary Entrance Conditions and Procedures	264
(e) Enhancing the Cultivation of Discipline	269
(f) Encouraging the Writing of Literature	272
2. Enhancing the Role and Ability of the Teacher	275
(a) Re-examination (Wiederholungsexamen)	278
(b) Examination of Abilities (Befähigungsexamen)	278
(c) Periodic In-Service Training	278
(d) Writing Contest with Prizes (Preisarbeiten)	280
(e) Pastors' Courses	280
E. Statistics	287
CHAPTER SIX "ADVANCE THROUGH STORM": 1915-1940	288

A.	The Period's Most Pressing Problems	289
1.	The Penetration of Modern Culture and the " Hamajuon " Movement	289
2.	The Movement for Autonomy	298
3.	Governmental Organization of Education	313
(a)	Categorizing the Elementary School as Volkschool and Vervolgschool	318
(b)	The Language of Instruction	319
(c)	The Status and Ownership of the School	319
(d)	The responsibility for the School's Financial Support	321
(e)	The Minimum Number of Pupils per School	322
4.	Financial Crisis	339
5.	Augmenting Its Teaching Staff with Teachers from the Natherlands	349
6.	Competition with the Roman Catholic Mission (RCM)	354
B.	The Batakmission's Schools in the Midst of Crisis	358
1.	The Regular Elementary School	358
2.	Schools for Girls and General Women's Education	360
3.	Dutch Schools	364
4.	Trade Schools	368
5.	The Education and Nurture of Church Workers	370
C.	Table and Statistics	378
	Kinds of Schools Operated by the RMG/Batakmission	379
	Quantitative Development of Congregations and Schools 1918-1938	380
CHAPTER SEVEN	EPILOGUE: 1940-1980	381
	Internment May 10, 1940	381
	The HKBP Reaction	384
	Colonial Government Action	386
	The RMG Reaction	390
	Development During and After the Japanese Occupation	392

PART THREE

EVALUATION, CONCLUSION AND REFLECTION

CHAPTER EIGHT	THE IMPACT OF THE BATAKMISSION'S EDUCATIONAL
A.	In the Field of the Church and Spiritual Life of Its Members	398
1.	Increase in Numbers of Church Members	398
2.	Character and Spiritual Nurture of Lay Persons	400
3.	Providing Church Workers	405
4.	Autonomy in Financial Affairs	408
B.	In the Social and Economic Fields	412
1.	Raising Their Social Status	412
2.	Increasing Economic Prosperity	416
3.	Enhancing the Status and Role of Women	419
C.	In the Field of Politics	422
1.	Providing Civil Service Employees	423
2.	The Rise of Nationalism	424
D.	In the Field of Culture	426
E.	In the Field of Education	430
CHAPTER NINE	REFLECTIONS	439
	Bibliography and Selected Sources	455
	Curriculum vitae	