

List of tables

2-1 Employment rates in 2004	33
2-2 Persons employed part-time in 2004 (percentage of total employment)	36
2-3 Gross hourly earnings of women in public and private sector (in percentage of men's earnings in each sector)	37
2-4 Average equalised income of men and women aged 65 and over (percentage of average income of people under 65)	39
2-5 Care facilities in Germany	43
3-1 Overview of Dutch and Danish pensions	73
3-2 Background statistics	75
3-3 Proportion of pension schemes in the Netherlands	77
3-4 Percentage of Danish pensioners entitled to the different pensions in 1995 and 2015	78
3-5 Gender differences in labour market participation in Denmark	79
3-6 Average income of the Dutch in 2004	82
3-7 Percentage of Dutch employees without occupational pension provisions	84
3-A Occupational pensions in the Netherlands 2002	86
4-1 Pension calculation within the public insurance schemes	105
4-2 Care facilities in Germany (places available as a percentage of children of the relevant age)	110
4-3 French women's insurance years on average	112
4-4 Gendered part-time employment in France in 2003	114
4-5 Explaining factors for lower old age net income of German women	116
4-6 Average years and level within the public pension insurance in Germany	118
4-7 Shifting the pension composition in Germany (as a percentage)	120

4-8 Care credits in France	124
6-1 Economic modes	173
6-2 Citizenship norms and actual pension entitlements: a first illustration	180
6-3 Complementary pension layers of a realistic utopian pension system	188
6-4 Citizenship norms and realistic utopian pension entitlements: an illustration	199